Financial Macroeconomics Jan A. Kregel, 2024-08-13 The title of this book may seem to confuse two separate disciplines finance and macroeconomics However it is based on the fact that finance and macroeconomics were integrated at least in their formative years It is a natural extension of a line of research that dominated monetary theory in the early part of the 20th century Economists such as Keynes Robertson Hawtrey Fisher Hayek and Schumpeter sought to blend the analysis of business cycles with their often first hand experience of money and financial markets The result was a monetary theory that provided the fertile background to what came to be called macroeconomics However in the post war period the monetary aspects of this theory dropped out of sight in the neo classical synthesis and hydraulic Keynesianism Post Keynesians such as Davidson and Minsky have done much to try to restore the monetary aspects of the theory but the other more technical aspects of financial analysis have been ignored This book aims to show how technical aspects of financial were initially part of the early investigations of macroeconomics and how they may be used to provide a realistic analysis of the behavior of modern financial economies □□□□ ,1993 A quarterly of comparative studies of Chinese and foreign literatures Book Review Digest ,1911 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are included The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities social sciences and general science published in the United States Canada and Great Britain Publisher The poetical Works of Thomas Moore Thomas Moore,1870 The New International Encyclopaedia ,1924 The Publisher ,1909 The Bookseller ,1917
