

Elsa was worried to see Anna. She wanted to return home with her sister, but she knew that everything would be different now that her secret was out. She also remembered how dangerous her powers could be.

"I think you should go, Anna," Elsa said. "I'm sorry. It has to be this way."

But Anna explained that Arendelle was still frozen. If Elsa stayed away, everyone in the kingdom would freeze.

Elsa admitted to Anna that she didn't know how to undo her magic, but Anna was sure that they could work it out together. Elsa knew nobody would ever look at her in the same way again. But Anna didn't understand.

Elsa's feelings of anger and frustration overwhelmed her until her powers burst out of her - and struck her sister in the heart!

Anna refused to leave, feeling certain that she could still help her sister. But Elsa insisted - and conjured up a giant snowman to escort Anna outside, along with Kristoff and Olaf.
