Diversity's Promise For Higher Education Making It Work:

Diversity's Promise for Higher Education Daryl G. Smith, 2015-06 Daryl G. Smith's career has been devoted to studying and fostering diversity in higher education. She has witnessed and encouraged the evolution of diversity from an issue addressed sporadically on college campuses to an imperative if institutions want to succeed. In this second edition of Diversity's Promise for Higher Education, Smith emphasizes a transdisciplinary approach to the topic of diversity, drawing on an updated list of sources from a wealth of literatures and fields. She claims with optimism that when the conclusions from a wide variety of studies using different methodologies begin to converge, we may apply the results with some confidence. Smith responds to recent criticism of diversity efforts on campuses as a convoluted list of grievances without focus on the historic issue of inequity by making explicit the central relationship between diversity and equity. To become more relevant to society, the nation, and the world while remaining true to their core mission, higher education institutions must begin to see diversity as central to teaching and research. She argues that institutions can pursue diversity efforts that are inclusive of the varied and growing issues apparent on campuses without losing focus. This thoughtful volume draws on 50 years of diversity studies. It offers students, researchers, and administrators an innovative approach to developing and instituting effective and sustainable diversity strategies.

Diversity's Promise for Higher Education Daryl G. Smith, 2020-08-11 Building sustainable diversity in higher education isn't just the right thing to do; it is an imperative for institutional excellence and for a pluralistic society that works. Updated Edition Daryl G. Smith has devoted her career to studying and fostering diversity in higher education. In Diversity's Promise for Higher Education, Smith brings together research from a wide variety of fields to propose a set of clear and realistic practices that will help colleges and universities locate diversity as a strategic imperative and pursue diversity efforts that are inclusive of the varied and growing issues apparent on campuses without losing focus on the critical unfinished business of the past. To become more relevant to society, the nation, and the world while remaining true to their core missions, colleges and universities must continue to see diversity like technology as central, not parallel, to their work. Indeed, looking at the relatively slow progress for change in many areas, Smith suggests that seeing diversity as an imperative for an institution's individual mission and not just as a value is the necessary lever for real institutional change. Furthermore, achieving excellence in a diverse society requires increasing institutional capacity for diversity, working to understand how diversity is tied to better leadership, positive change, research in virtually every field, student success, accountability, and more equitable hiring practices. In this edition, which is aimed at administrators, faculty, researchers, and students of higher education, Smith emphasizes a transdisciplinary approach to the topic of diversity, drawing on an updated list of sources from a wealth of literatures and fields. The tables and figures have been refreshed to include data on faculty diversity over a twenty-year period, and the book includes new information about gender identity, embedded bias, student success, the growing role of chief diversity officers, the international emergence of diversity issues, faculty hiring, and important metrics for monitoring progress Drawing on forty years of diversity studies this third edition also includes more examples of how diversity is core to institutional excellence academic achievement and leadership development updates issues of language examines the current climate of race based campus protest addresses the complexity of identity and explains how to attend to the growing kinds of identities relevant to diversity equity and inclusion while not overshadowing the unfinished business of race class and gender

American Higher Education in the Twenty-First Century Michael N. Bastedo, Philip G. Altbach, Patricia J. Gumport, 2016-03-30 An indispensable reference that everyone concerned with the future of American colleges and universities should acquire First published in 1999 American Higher Education in the Twenty First Century offered a comprehensive introduction to the central issues facing American colleges and universities This thoroughly revised edition brings the classic volume up to date The contributors have rewritten every chapter to address major changes in higher education including the rise of organized social movements the problem of income inequality and stratification and the growth of for profit and distance education Three new chapters cover information technology community colleges and teaching and learning This edition seeks to capture several crucial dynamics in the nexus of higher education and society Placing higher education within its social and political contexts the contributors discuss finance federal and state governance faculty students curriculum and academic leadership They also grapple with growing concerns about the future of the academy and reflect more deeply on the racial ethnic and socioeconomic diversity within higher education No other book covers such wide ranging issues under the broader theme of higher education s relationship to society Highly acclaimed and incorporating cutting edge research American Higher Education in the Twenty First Century is now more useful and engaging than ever Contributors Michael N Bastedo Philip G Altbach Patricia J Gumport Benjamin Baez Peter Riley Bahr Joy Blanchard Corbin M Campbell Melanie E Corrigan Peter D Eckel Roger L Geiger Lawrence E Gladieux Sara Goldrick Rab Jillian Leigh Gross D Bruce Johnstone Adrianna Kezar Jacqueline E King Aims C McGuinness Jr Michael Mumper Anna Neumann Robert M O Neil Laura W Perna Gary Rhoades Roman Ruiz Lauren Schudde Sheila Slaughter Daryl G Smith

Higher Education for Diversity, Social Inclusion and Community Sjur Bergan, Ira Harkavy, 2018 How does the Council of Europe put into practice its commitment to the promotion of a culture of democracy through education Over the past decade or so our societies have been facing increasing difficulties in reconciling acceptance of diversity and social inclusion with the need for community The search for simple solutions to complex problems the fact that fake news and alternative facts are no longer seen as nonsensical expressions our responses to migration and the refugee crisis and the growth of populism in many parts of Europe present challenges to our societies and not least to education Authors from Europe North America and South Africa outline how higher education could respond to these challenges The first section makes a strong case for the continuing importance of higher education and research to modern society The second focuses on higher education institutions and the need for inclusive and diverse campuses The third section considers opportunities to
