Dix Vingt Jours Karl Doenitz:

The Submariner's Dictionary Or Submariner's Compendium of Terms & Tar's Handbook of Naval Verbiage and Retired Guy's Re-familiarization Manual Ron Martini, 2005 Submariners are a tight knit group of men bound together by training and experience and with a language all their own That language is perhaps a little vulgar but never intentionally demeaning and a little irreverent but still worldly This work is an attempt to preserve and explain some of these curious guys who so proudly wear a shiny metal pin that looks like a strange pair of fish on their left breast This process of accumulating this new language begins in Boot Camp and is added to with every change of duty station the sailor undergoes It is heard aboard the boats and unknowingly by family members who can't understand terms like head deck and overhead and who think SOS is a distress signal

Hot Straight and Normal Ron Martini, 2001 Hot Straight and Normal is a submarine bibliography with over 6000 references to books videos articles and Internet sources It is designed to assist researchers historians students teachers collectors and others with an interest in submarines their history construction and use in wars worldwide It's unique format of listing the books by title will assist the researcher and casual reader alike in finding or searching for familiar words and subjects Fiction book titles are also included Each listing contains title author date published publisher page count ISBN number and other informative descriptions if known This is the only submarine bibliography currently in publication The article index includes all articles in all issues of Naval Submarine League's Submarine Review and Naval Institute's Naval Proceedings magazine There are Web sites and other Internet sources listed and even information on obtaining more information through the Freedom of Information Act Also included is how to find materials inside government archives Collected and edited by a former U S submariner and member of U S Submarine Veterans Inc
