Heritage and Hate Stephen M. Monroe, 2021-06 Explores how Ole Miss and other Southern universities

presently contend with an inherited panoply of Southern words and symbols and Old South traditions everything that publicly defines these communities from anthems to buildings to flags to monuments to mascots Integration Now William P.

Hustwit,2019-02-05 Recovering the history of an often ignored landmark Supreme Court case William P Hustwit assesses the significant role that Alexander v Holmes 1969 played in integrating the South s public schools Although Brown v Board of Education has rightly received the lion s share of historical analysis its ambiguous language for implementation led to more than a decade of delays and resistance by local and state governments Alexander v Holmes required integration now and less than a year later thousands of children were attending integrated schools Hustwit traces the progression of the Alexander case to show how grassroots activists in Mississippi operated hand in glove with lawyers and judges involved in the litigation By combining a narrative of the larger legal battle surrounding the case and the story of the local activists who pressed for change Hustwit offers an innovative well researched account of a definitive legal decision that reaches from the cotton fields of Holmes County to the chambers of the Supreme Court in Washington The Deepest South of All Richard

Grant,2020-09-01 Bestselling travel writer Richard Grant sensitively probes the complex and troubled history of the oldest city on the Mississippi River through the eyes of a cast of eccentric and unexpected characters Newsweek Natchez Mississippi once had more millionaires per capita than anywhere else in America and its wealth was built on slavery and cotton Today it has the greatest concentration of antebellum mansions in the South and a culture full of unexpected contradictions Prominent white families dress up in hoopskirts and Confederate uniforms for ritual celebrations of the Old South yet Natchez is also progressive enough to elect a gay black man for mayor with 91% of the vote Much as John Berendt did for Savannah in Midnight in the Garden of Good and Evil and the hit podcast S Town did for Woodstock Alabama so Richard Grant does for Natchez in The Deepest South of All With humor and insight he depicts a strange eccentric town with an unforgettable cast of characters There s Buzz Harper a six foot five gay antique dealer famous for swanning around in a mink coat with a uniformed manservant and a very short German bodybuilder There s Ginger Hyland The Lioness who owns 500 antique eyewash cups and decorates 168 Christmas trees with her jewelry collection And there s Nellie Jackson a Cadillac driving brothel madam who became an FBI informant about the KKK before being burned alive by one of her customers Interwoven through these stories is the more somber and largely forgotten account of Abd al Rahman Ibrahima a West African prince who was enslaved in Natchez and became a cause c l bre in the 1820s eventually gaining his freedom and returning to Africa With an easygoing manner Geoff Dyer National Book Critics Circle Award winning author of Otherwise Known as the Human Condition this book offers a gripping portrait of a complex American place as it struggles to break free from the past and confront the legacy of slavery Summary of Richard Grant's Dispatches from Pluto

Everest Media,2022-07-30T23:00:00Z Please note This is a companion version not the original book Sample Book Insights 1 I met with Mike and his wife Beth who kindly offered to lend me the money to buy their house I was grateful for the offer but the American mortgage industry was acting sober and averse to low level risks like me 2 I bought a house in Mississippi and it was so easy that I was suspicious Everyone was incredibly kind and helpful and I had the sensation of hovering above myself as I signed 18 different legal documents 3 I had bought a house down near Yazoo City I was moving in and the man across the street told me the story of Emmett Till a white boy who had been killed in Money in 1955 He had no sympathy for the boy whatsoever 4 I had a very different experience being a resident of Mississippi than a visitor I realized that I couldn't just write off the people of Money as racist because they had suffered from racial violence and injustice for far longer than I had been alive
