Don't Just Roll the Dice Neil Davidson, Phil Factor, Michael Pryor, 2009 How do you price your software Is it art science or magic How much attention should you pay to your competitors This short handbook will provide you with the theory practical advice and case studies you need to stop yourself from reaching for the dice Table of Contents Chapter 01 Some but not too much Economics Chapter 02 Pricing Psychology What is your product worth Chapter 03 Pricing Pitfalls Chapter 04 Advanced Pricing Chapter 05 What your price says about you and how to change it Why read this book At Business of Software 2007 Michael Pryor held an impromptu session on how to price your software So many people turned up and so many people kept on arriving that by the time they d introduced themselves there was no time left to talk about software pricing I ve had similar experiences in fact How do I price my software is probably the most common question I m asked by software entrepreneurs and product managers This handbook is an attempt to answer that question Neil Davidson Author About the Author Neil Davidson is co founder and joint CEO of Red Gate Software Red Gate was founded in 1999 and now employs some 150 people It was Cambridge News business of the year in 2006 and has been in the Sunday Times top 100 companies to work for three years running It was founded with no VC money and little debt Neil is also founder of the annual Business of Software conference and runs the Business of Software social network On Startups: Advice and Insights for Entrepreneurs Dharmesh Shah, 2012-12-09 Note from the Author Hi my name is Dharmesh and I m a startup addict And chances are if you re reading this you have at least a mild obsession as well This book is based on content from the OnStartups com blog The story behind how the blog got started is sort of interesting but before I tell you that story it ll help to understand my earlier story As a professional programmer I used to work in a reasonably fun job doing what I liked to do write code Eventually I got a little frustrated with it all so at the ripe old age of 24 I started my first software company It did pretty well It was on the Inc 500 list of fastest growing companies three times It reached millions of dollars of sales and was ultimately acquired I ran that first company for over 10 years working the typical startup hours When I sold that company I went back to school to get a master s degree at MIT I ve always enjoyed academics and I figured this would be a nice soft landing and give me some time to figure out what I wanted to do with my life As part of my degree requirements I had to write a graduate thesis I titled my thesis On Startups Patterns and Practices of Contemporary Software Entrepreneurs And as part of that thesis work I wanted to get some feedback from some entrepreneurs So I figured I d start a blog I took the first two words of the thesis title On Startups discovered that the domain name OnStartups com was available and was then off to the races The blog was launched on November 5 2005 Since then the blog and associated community have grown quite large Across Facebook LinkedIn and email subscribers there are over 300 000 people in the OnStartups com audience This book is a collection of some of the best articles from over 7 years of OnStartups com The articles have been topically organized and edited I hope you enjoy them The Grid Matt Watkinson, 2017-08-24 _____ This ground
