Translating and Interpreting in Korean Contexts Ji-Hae Kang, Judy Wakabayashi, 2019-04-03 The focus of this volume is on how the people of the Korean Peninsula historically an important part of the Sinocentric world in East Asia and today a vital economic and strategic site have negotiated oral and written interactions with their Asian neighbors and Europeans in the past and present through the mediation of translators and interpreters These encounters have been shaped by political social and cultural factors including the shared use of the Chinese writing system in East Asia for many centuries attitudes toward other Asians and Westerners and perceptions of Korean identity in relation to these Others After exploring aspects of historical interactions the volume addresses how the role and practice of translation and interpreting have recently evolved as a result of the development of digital technology an increase in the number of immigrants and changes in political and cultural dynamics in the region It covers a range of historical and contemporary aspects genres and venues that extend beyond the common yet restrictive focus on literary translation and includes discussions of translator training and academic studies of translation and interpreting in Korea

Caledonia Dreaming John Kv Eunson, 2012-03-01 So what have the Scots ever done for the world then Well most people will know about John Logie Baird inventor of television Alexander Graham Bell the telephone and Alexander Fleming penicillin But what about Alexander Cummings from Edinburgh It would be hard to imagine getting through the day without using his invention the flushing toilet Or how about William Cullen from Glasgow There would be a lot of sour milk and warm beer without the first man to demonstrate artificial refrigeration And then there s Alexander Bain from Caithness Can anyone really imagine a world without his invention the fax machine The list goes on and on Janet Keillor from Dundee marmalade James Clerk Maxwell from Edinburgh radio waves John Reith from Stonehaven the BBC James Black from Uddingston beta blockers James Bowman Lindsay from Angus light bulbs James Goodfellow from Paisley the ATM Dugald Clerk from Glasgow the two stroke engine Alexander McRae from the Kyle of Lochalsh speedos James Blyth from Kincardineshire the first electricity producing wind turbine Caledonia Dreaming tells the often frankly unbelievable stories behind these discoveries and looks at how they along with the writers philosophers philanthropists and bankers of Scotland have left their unique indelible mark on the modern world

Ireland's New Religious Movements Olivia Cosgrove, Laurence Cox, Carmen Kuhling, 2010-10-12 Until recently Irish religion has been seen as defined by Catholic power in the South and sectarianism in the North In recent years however both have been shaken by widespread changes in religious practice and belief the rise of new religious movements the revival of magical devotionalism the arrival of migrant religion and the spread of New Age and alternative spirituality This book is the first to bring together researchers exploring all these areas in a wide ranging overview of new religion in Ireland Chapters explore the role of feminism Ireland as global Celtic homeland the growth of Islam understanding the New Age evangelicals in the Republic alternative healing Irish interest in Buddhism channelled teachings and religious visions This book will be an indispensable handbook for professionals in many fields seeking to understand Ireland s increasingly diverse and multicultural religious landscape as well as for students of religion sociology psychology anthropology and Irish Studies Giving an overview of the shape of new religion in Ireland today and models of the best work in the field it is likely to remain a standard text for many years to come

Freedom Inc.: Gendered Capitalism in New Indian Literature and Culture Mukti Lakhi Mangharam, 2023-06-15 While globalization is often credited with the eradication of traditional constraints tied to gender and caste in reality the opening up of the Indian economy in the 1990s has led to a decline in freedom for many female Dalit and lower class Indians This book explores the contraction of what it means to be free in post liberalization India examining how global capitalism has exacerbated existing inequalities based on traditional femininities and masculinities while also creating new hierarchies Freedom Inc argues that post 1990s literature and culture frequently represents and reinforces the equation of free market capitalism with individual freedom within the new idea of India However many texts often also challenge this logic by pointing to more expansive horizons of autonomy for the gendered self Through readings of texts as diverse as Dalit women s life writing pop fiction realist novels self help regional film and Netflix TV shows Mangharam investigates how notions like free trade entrepreneurship and self help are experienced embodied and challenged by disadvantaged peoples and by women differently than men In the process Freedom Inc explores how different literary forms illuminate alternative and buried pathways to fuller freedoms
