Death of a Typographer Nick Gadd, 2020-04-17 MARTIN KERN has a special sensitivity to fonts a skill that he uses to solve typographical crimes When a local printer is found dead in his workshop his body in the shape of an X Martin and his co investigator journalist Lucy Tan are drawn into a mystery that is stranger than anything they have encountered before Someone is leaving typographical clues at the scenes of a series of murders All the trails lead back to Pieter van Floogstraten a Dutch design genius who disappeared without trace in the 1970s and who has since been engaged in a mystical scheme to create the world's most perfect font which is concealed in locations around the globe But is he really the killer and how are the crimes connected to his secret font In solving the mystery Martin and Lucy may have to expose Martin's hero as a psychopath The main plot of the novel unfolds in Melbourne while interleaved chapters set variously in a Tibetan monastery on the plains of Peru in London Naples and Amsterdam gradually reveal the story of Floogstraten in flashback Other characters include a noir style private font investigator a typographical monk from the Renaissance a Dutch prog rock group named I Am A Dolphin and a collective of Italian typo terrorists This novel takes the reader into the arcane world of typographers and their typefaces of symbols swashes and glyphs where the difference between a serif and sans serif could mean life and death You might start thinking Jasper Fforde has hit a new high but Nick Gadd's brilliant blend of humour mystery and yes typography is all his own A compelling read whether or not you know your Comic Sans from your ZapfDingbats NICK EARLS
