Simpson, Patrick McAleer, 2014-11-13 Many readers know Stephen King for his early works of horror from his fiction debut Carrie to his blockbuster novels The Shining The Stand and Misery among others While he continues to be a best selling author King s more recent fiction has not received the kind of critical attention that his books from the 1970s and 1980s enjoyed Recent novels like Duma Key and 11/22/63 have been marginalized and arguably cast aside as anomalies within the author s extensive canon In Stephen King s Contemporary Classics: Reflections on the Modern Master of Horror Philip L. Simpson and Patrick McAleer present a collection of essays that analyze assess and critique King s post 1995 compositions Purposefully side stepping studies of earlier work these essays are arranged into three main parts the first section examines five King novels published between 2009 and 2013 offering genuinely fresh scholarship on King the second part looks at the development of King s distinct brand of horror the third section departs from probing the content of King s writing and instead focuses on King s process By concentrating on King s most recent writings this collection offers provocative insights into the author s work featuring essays on Dr Sleep Duma Key The Girl Who Loved Tom Gordon Joyland Under the Dome and others As such Stephen King s Contemporary Classics will appeal to general fans of the author s work as well as scholars of Stephen King and modern literature      The Quest for the Dark Tower Alissa Burger, 2021-04-09 A sprawling epic that encompasses many worlds parallel and alternate timelines and the echoes between these disconnects Stephen King s Dark Tower series spans the entirety of King s career from The Gunslinger limited edition 1982 revised in 2003 to The Wind Through the Keyhole 2012 The series has two distinctive characteristics its genre hybridity and its interconnection with the larger canon of King s work The Dark Tower series engages with a number of distinct and at times dissonant genre traditions including those of Arthurian legend fairy tales the fantasy epic the Western and horror The Dark Tower series is also significant in its cross references to King's other works ranging from overt connections like characters or places to more subtle allusions like the sigil of the Dark Tower's Crimson King appearing in the graffiti of other realities This book examines these connections and genre influences to consider how King negotiates and transforms these elements why they matter and the impact they have on one another and on King's work as a whole     The Complete Stephen King Universe Stan Wiater, Stanley Wiater, Christopher Golden, Hank Wagner, 2006-05-30 The Complete Stephen King Universe is the only definitive reference work that examines all of Stephen King's novels short stories motion pictures miniseries and teleplays and deciphers the threads that exist in all of his work This ultimate resource includes in depth story analyses character breakdowns little known facts and startling revelations on how the plots themes characters and conflicts intertwine publisher website February 2007     Magill's Literary Annual 2003 Salem Press, 2003-06 Magill's Literary Annual 2003 is the fiftieth publication in a series that began in 1954 The philosophy behind the annual has been to evaluate critically 200 major examples of serious literature published during the previous year Our focus is to provide coverage for works that are likely to be of particular interest to the general reader that reflect the publishing trends of a given year that add to careers of authors being taught and researched in literature programs and that will stand the test of time By filtering the thousands of books published each year down to two hundred notable titles the editors have provided the busy librarian with an excellent reader's advisory tool and patrons with fodder for book discussion groups and a guide for selection The essay reviews in the Annual also provide a more academic reference review of a work than is typically found in newspapers and other periodical sources This year's works are drawn from such categories as anthropology autobiography biography current affairs diaries economics environment essays history language literary criticism medicine memoirs nature philosophy poetry psychology religion science short fiction sociology technology travel and women's issues The articles are arranged alphabetically by book title A complete list of included titles can be found at the beginning of volume 1 Each 2 000 word article begins with a block of top matter that indicates the title author publisher and price of the work When possible the year of the author's birth is also provided The top matter also includes the number of pages of the book the type of work and when appropriate the time period and locale represented in the text Next comes a capsule description of the work When pertinent a list of principal characters or personages with brief descriptions introduces the review These original essay reviews analyze intent and relative success of the author and the work under discussion To assist the reader further the articles are supplemented by a list of additional reviews for further study Every essay includes a brief biography of the author or authors and thumbnail photographs of the book covers and authors are included as available At the end of volume 2 are four cumulative indexes listing works covered from the years 1977 to 2003 an index of Biographical Works by Subject a Category Index a Title Index and an Author Index The index of Biographical Works by Subject is arranged by subject rather than by author or title
