District 9: Johannesburg as Nostalgic Dystopia Landi Raubenheimer, 2024-12-23 The film District 9 made waves as an allegory of apartheid on the big screen but it has not yet been given its rightful place as a landmark depiction within broader visual cultural studies of Johannesburg and cities in the Global South In this book Landi Raubenheimer argues that District 9's portrayal of Johannesburg reverberates within a larger body of representations of the city collectively shaping a unique visual idiom for the post apartheid city as nostalgic dystopia Delving deeply into District 9 Raubenheimer brings to light the fascination that images of the city as nostalgic dystopia has held for filmmakers photographers viewers and lovers of Johannesburg alike

Dystopian Literature M. Keith Booker, 1994-05-25 Dystopian literature is a potent vehicle for criticizing existing social conditions and political systems While utopian literature portrays ideal worlds dystopian literature depicts the flaws and failures of imaginative societies Often these societies are related to utopias and the dystopian writers have chosen to reveal shortcomings of those social systems previously considered ideal This reference overviews dystopian theory and summarizes and analyzes numerous dystopian works By reviewing the critical thought of particular dystopian theorists the beginning of the volume provides a theoretical context for the remainder of the book Because dystopian literature is so closely related to utopian writing the reference profiles and discusses eight important utopian works The rest of the book includes entries for numerous dystopian novels plays and films Each entry summarizes the work and discusses dystopian themes The entries include short bibliographies with full bibliographic information provided at the end of the volume This comprehensive guide covers the full period from Thomas More's Utopia to the present day
