

The background image shows a row of three-story Victorian houses with ornate facades. The central house is white with blue trim, flanked by a yellow house on the left and a blue house on the right. A semi-transparent rectangular box with a thin brown border is centered over the houses, containing the title and author information. The title 'FARMING FUNDAMENTALS' is in a large, bold, black serif font. Below it, the subtitle 'How to Evaluate and Cultivate a Successful Real Estate Farm' is in a smaller, black serif font. At the bottom of the box, the author's name 'Stephen A. Elich' is in a large, black serif font. The overall scene is set against a clear blue sky with a few wispy clouds.

The Fundamental Institution Megan Birk,2022-04-12 By the early 1900s the poor farm had become a ubiquitous part of America's social welfare system Megan Birk's history of this foundational but forgotten institution focuses on the connection between agriculture provisions for the disadvantaged and the daily realities of life at poor farms Conceived as an inexpensive way to provide care for the indigent poor farms in fact attracted wards that ranged from abused wives and the elderly to orphans the disabled and disaster victims Most people arrived unable rather than unwilling to work some because of physical problems others due to a lack of skills or because a changing labor market had left them behind Birk blends the personal stories of participants with institutional histories to reveal a loose knit system that provided a measure of care to everyone without an overarching philosophy of reform or rehabilitation In depth and innovative The Fundamental Institution offers an overdue portrait of rural social welfare in the United States
