Global Formation Structures Of The World Economy:

Global Formation Christopher K. Chase-Dunn,1998 The fall of communism the emergence of the information age and the expansion of economic globalism are the point of departure for this text The author shows how these seemingly new developments fit with earlier patterns of global formation and change This edition also evaluates studies of the modern world system and assesses the implications for the future of the contemporary system Global Formation Christopher K.

Trade And Transformation In Korea, 1876-1945 Dennis McNamara,2019-05-20 Exploring the interaction among system state and society this book illuminates the social and economic history of late nineteenth and early twentieth century colonial Korea Dennis McNamara argues that transformation within and trade abroad led by rice exports spurred Korea s shift from isolation to inclusion in a modern regional system In his Frontiers of Globalization Research: Ino Rossi,2007-03-21 To bring this volume together the editor asked leading scholars in the field of globalization to outline a research framework that reflects their own approach to the subject The resulting book presents a broad spectrum of analytical approaches to globalization Theoretical reviews are complemented by substantive chapters and methodological analyses Contributors include scholars in the fields of sociology anthropology history and political science These writings have been organized into four sections theoretical perspectives and cultural globalization economic globalization political globalization and methodological approaches Northeast Asian Regionalism Christopher M. Dent,David W. F. Huang,2002 This examination of developments in North East Asian regionalism looks at security international relations international political economy and politics together with historical social and cultural factors The State in Africa Tatah Mentan,2025-09-28 This book critically analyzes the complex relationship between the African state and capitalist globalization It describes in great detail the significant effects of the various historical trajectories of global capitalist expansion on the nature and functions of the African state while focusing on the present triumph of globalized neo liberalism on the African continent The history of the state in Africa has been misread and misinterpreted through the Eurocentric convictions of European African scholars alike The State in Africa has since its colonial inception has served as the best possible political shell for capitalism enabling it to penetrate again possession and establish itself firmly and securely regardless of institutional and leadership instability at the helm The glaring artificiality of the state in Africa coupled with the failure of the local ruling classes to rise above the limitations of their provenance is to blame for the myriad crises of one party authoritarianism violent coups and military dictatorship It is also to blame for the progressive alienation of the African people and the prevailing crises of identity and citizenship Independence does not seem to have changed much as the state is still controlled by the most powerful foreign economically dominant class which has appropriated political power as well to further compound the subjection and exploitation of the oppressed Africans Today the continent continues to grapple with underdevelopment civil wars intra state
