Global News Reporting Conflicts And Cosmopolitanism Global Crises And The Media:

Global News Alexa Robertson, 2015 Global News explores how media representation is conceived and enacted in a world of diversity and transborder flows This book explores the different theoretical worlds of global media studies takes a rare look at content has a comparative perspective and moves beyond the conflict frame that has dominated much of the literature in the field

Global Crisis Reporting Cottle, Simon, 2008-11-01 From climate change to the global war on terror from forced migration to humanitarian disasters these are just some of the global crises addressed in this accessible ground breaking book For the first time the author examines how why and to what extent these are diverse threats to humanity conveyed in today s news media

Cosmopolitan Communication Studies Carola Richter, Melanie Radue, Christine Horz-Ishak, Anna Litvinenko, Hanan Badr, Anke Fiedler, 2025-04-17 This volume proposes a deep internationalization of media and communication studies by offering insights and guidance on how to integrate a cosmopolitan perspective in a variety of subfields of this discipline Building on debates on de Westernization and cosmopolitanism the contributors advocate for the inclusion of both global and local perspectives and context led approaches They argue that acknowledging and incorporating epistemologies topics and methodologies from diverse regions contexts and backgrounds will enhance the comprehensiveness and relevance of their discipline and foster a more inclusive and meaningful understanding in communication studies

Foundations of Global Communication Kai Hafez, Anne Grüne, 2022-05-30 This book provides a wide ranging theoretical and empirical overview of the disparate achievements and shortcomings of global communication This exceptionally ambitious and systematic project takes a critical perspective on the globalization of communication Uniquely it sets media globalization alongside a plethora of other globalized forms of communication ranging from the individual to groups civil society groupings commercial enterprises and political formations The result is a sophisticated and impressive overview of globalized communication across various facets assessing the phenomena for the extent to which they live up to the much hyped claims of globalization s potential to create a globally interdependent society The setbacks of globalization such as right wing populism and religious fundamentalism can only be understood if the shortcomings of global communication are taken more seriously Covering all types of cross border global communication in media political and economic systems civil societies social media and lifeworlds of the individual this unique book is invaluable for students and researchers in media communication globalization and related areas

The Routledge Companion to Humanitarian Action Roger Mac Ginty, Jenny H Peterson, 2015-03-24 The Companion on Humanitarian Action addresses the political ethical legal and practical issues which influence reactions to humanitarian crisis It does so by exploring the daily dilemmas faced by a range of actors including policy makers aid workers the private sector and the beneficiaries of aid and by challenging common perceptions regarding humanitarian crisis and the policies put in place to address these Through such explorations it provides practitioners and scholars with the knowledge needed to both understand and improve upon current forms of humanitarian action The Companion will be of use to those interested a range of humanitarian programmes ranging from emergency medical assistance military interventions managing refugee flows and the implementation of international humanitarian law As opposed to addressing specific programmes it will explore five themes seen as relevant to understanding and engaging in all modes of humanitarian action The first section explores varying interpretations of humanitarianism including critical historical and political economic explanations as well as more practice based explorations focused on notions needs assessments and evaluation Following this readers will be exposed to the latest debates on a range of humanitarian principles including neutrality and sovereignty before exploring the key issues faced by the main actors involved in humanitarian crisis from international NGOs to local community based organizations The final two sections address what are seen as key dilemmas in regards to humanitarian action and emerging trends in the humanitarian system including the increasing role of social media in responding to crises Whilst not a how to guide the Companion contains many practical insights for policy makers and aid workers whilst also offering analytical insights for students of humanitarian action Indeed throughout the book readers will come to the realization that understanding and improving humanitarian action simultaneously requires both active critical reflection and an acceptance of the urgency and timeliness of action that is required for humanitarian assistance to have an impact on vital human needs Exploring a sector that is far from homogenous both practitioners and scholars alike will find the contributions of this book offers them a deeper understanding of the motivations and mechanics of current interventions but also insight into current changes and progress occurring in the field of humanitarian practice

Crisis, Media ,2004 Contributed articles presented at the Crisis Media Workshop organized by Sarai CSDS Delhi in March 2003 analysing media coverage on wars and internal disturbances in various South Asian countries

The U.S. Media and Yugoslavia, 1991-1995 James J. Sadkovich,1998-03-19 This book is a unique contribution to both media studies and contemporary politics It analyzes the American media s structure and its role in shaping perceptions of the crisis in the former Yugoslavia and looks at the key issues involved from self determination to genocide Sadkovich sees the failure of the U S media and the West as having prolonged and even aggravated the conflict in the former Yugoslavia This work will prove useful to both the general reader and students of media and current affairs

Peace Research Abstracts Journal ,2001

Sociological Abstracts Leo P. Chall,2004 CSA Sociological Abstracts abstracts and indexes the international literature in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences The database provides abstracts of journal articles and citations to book reviews drawn from over 1 800 serials publications and also provides abstracts of books book chapters dissertations and conference papers

The Balkans and the West Andrew Hammond,2004 This timely collection investigates how the Balkans and the West have constructed each other since 1945 Scholars from both sections of the continent explore a wide variety of fiction film journalism travel writing and diplomatic records both to analyse Western European balkanism and to study Balkan representations of the West over the last fifty years

This dual emphasis exposes the representational practices that help to maintain a deeply divided Europe and challenges the economic and political injustices that result. Despite the rise of postcolonialist analyses of global inequality the current crises in many parts of South East Europe have received scant attention in literary and cultural studies. The Balkans and the West addresses this deficiency. Ranging in focus from Serbian cinema to Romanian travel literature from Western economic writings to Yugoslav fiction and from public discourse in Albania to NATO's vast propaganda machine the essays offer wide insight into representation and power in the contemporary European context. CSA Political Science & Government
