Laying the Foundation John W. White, Heather

Gilbert,2016-03-15 Laying the Foundation Digital Humanities in Academic Libraries examines the library's role in the development, implementation and instruction of successful digital humanities projects. It pays special attention to the critical role of librarians in building sustainable programs. It also examines how libraries can support the use of digital scholarship tools and techniques in undergraduate education. Academic libraries are nexuses of research and technology as such they provide fertile ground for cultivating and curating digital scholarship. However adding digital humanities to library service models requires a clear understanding of the resources and skills required. Integrating digital scholarship into existing models calls for a reimagining of the roles of libraries and librarians. In many cases these reimagined roles call for expanded responsibilities often in the areas of collaborative instruction and digital asset management and in turn these expanded responsibilities can strain already stretched resources. Laying the Foundation provides practical solutions to the challenges of successfully incorporating digital humanities programs into existing library services. Collectively its authors argue that librarians are critical resources for teaching digital humanities to undergraduate students and that libraries are essential for publishing, preserving and making accessible digital scholarship.

Hollywood Action Films and Spatial Theory Nick Jones,2015-03-02 This book applies the discourse of the so called spatial turn to popular contemporary cinema in particular the action sequences of twenty first century Hollywood productions. Tackling a variety of spatial imaginations contemporary iconic architecture, globalisation and non places, phenomenological knowledge of place, consumerist spaces of commodity, purchase, cyberspace, the diverse case studies not only detail the range of ways in which action sequences represent the challenge of surviving and acting in contemporary space but also reveal the consistent qualities of spatial appropriation and spatial manipulation that define the form. Jones argues that action sequences dramatise the restrictions and possibilities of space offering examples of radical spatial praxis through their depictions of spatial engagement, struggle and eventual transcendence.

Geographies of Affect in Contemporary Literature and Visual Culture, 2020-12-15 Geographies of Affect in Contemporary Literature and Visual Culture opens a dialogue between the literary and filmic works produced in Central Europe and in the Anglophone world. It relies on the concept of translocality to explore this corpus offering new readings of contemporary Hungarian films as well as urban fiction and poetry in English. Calling attention to the role of affect in imagining city space, the volume investigates György Pálfi's Taxidermia, Béla Tarr's Family Nest, Teju Cole's Open City, Toni Morrison's Jazz, China Miéville's Un Lun Dun, Chimamanda Adichie's Americanah and Patrick Neate's City of Tiny Lights among many other urban narratives. Contributors examine both widely explored emotions and under researched affects such as shame, fascination and the role of withdrawal in contemporary literature and culture. Contributors: Tamás Bányai, Imola Bolygázi, Fanni Feldmann, Zsolt Gyöngyösi, György Kalmár, Anna Kráchy, Márta Krácsi, Jennifer Leetsch, Katalin Pálfi, Miklós Takács, Pieter Vermeulen.
