Global Dreams Class Gender And Public Space In Cosmopolitan Cairo:

Global Dreams Anouk de Koning, 2009-06-01 At the start of the twenty first century Cairo's cityscape has acquired a spectacular global touch Its luxurious five star hotels high rise office buildings immaculately clean malls and swanky coffee shops serving caf latte and caesar salad along with the budding gated communities in the city's desert expanses exemplify three decades of economic liberalization In the surrounding social landscape the gradual abrogation of the Nasser era structures that provided many with low cost goods and services is dearly felt This new study examines Cairo's experience of economic liberalization in an era of globalization It asks what happened to a postcolonial middle class that was once the carrier of national aspirations and dreams It explores how young middle class professionals navigate Cairo's increasingly divided landscape and discusses the rise of a young uppermiddle class presence in the work leisure and public spaces of the city

Global Dreams Anouk de Koning, 2009 Introduction young professionals and the city 1 Dreams of a global Cairo history present and future 2 The education of class 3 The logics of reform belonging in Cairo's coffee shops 4 Class and cosmopolitan belonging in Cairo's coffee shops 5 Of taxi drivers prostitutes and professional women gender public space and social segregation Conclusion global dreams and post colonial predicaments

A Society of Young Women Amelie Le Renard, 2014-06-25 The cities of Saudi Arabia are among the most gender segregated in the world In recent years the Saudi government has felt increasing international pressure to offer greater roles for women in society Implicit in these calls for reform however is an assumption that the only real society is male society Little consideration has been given to the rapidly evolving activities within women's spaces This book joins young urban women in their daily lives in the workplace on the female university campus at the mall to show how these women are transforming Saudi cities from within and creating their own urban professional consumerist lifestyles As young Saudi women are emerging as an increasingly visible social group they are shaping new social norms Their shared urban spaces offer women the opportunity to shed certain constraints and imagine themselves in new roles But to feel included in this peer group women must adhere to new constraints to be sophisticated fashionable feminine and modern The position of other women poor rural or non Saudi women is increasingly marginalized While young urban women may embody the image of a reformed Saudi nation the reform project ultimately remains incomplete drawing new hierarchies and lines of exclusion among women

Urban Pollution Eveline Dürr, Rivke Jaffe, 2010-08-01 Re-examining Mary Douglas work on pollution and concepts of purity this volume explores modern expressions of these themes in urban areas examining the intersections of material and cultural pollution It presents ethnographic case studies from a range of cities affected by globalization processes such as neoliberal urban policies privatization of urban space continued migration and spatialized ethnic tension What has changed since the appearance of Purity and Danger How have anthropological views on pollution changed accordingly This volume focuses on cultural meanings and values that are attached to conceptions of clean and dirty purity and impurity healthy and unhealthy environments and addresses the implications of pollution with regard to discrimination class urban poverty social hierarchies and ethnic segregation in cities      Introducing Urban Anthropology Rivke Jaffe, Anouk de Koning, 2022-12-30 This book provides an up to date introduction to the important field of urban anthropology This is a critical area of study as more than half of the world's population now lives in cities and anthropological research is increasingly done in an urban context Exploring contemporary anthropological approaches to the urban the authors consider How can we define urban anthropology What are the main themes of twenty first century urban anthropological research What are the possible future directions in the field The chapters cover topics such as urban mobilities place making and public space production and consumption and politics and governance These are illustrated by lively case studies drawn from urban settings across the world Accessible yet theoretically incisive Introducing Urban Anthropology will be a valuable resource for anthropology students and also for those working in urban studies and related disciplines such as sociology and geography The revised second edition includes updated theoretical discussions and new ethnographic case studies It features a new chapter on neoliberalism austerity and solidarity and engages more extensively with digital transformations of urban life

Re-visioning the Public in Post-reform Urban China Junxi Qian, 2017-08-02 This book offers a theoretical intervention into the normative ideals of public space that are deeply rooted in Western urbanism It disrupts the binaries of presence absence inclusion exclusion by presenting a series of case studies that vividly convey the complexity and vicissitude of grassroots spatial practices It engages powerfully with the question of what constitutes the urban public in our everyday cities Moreover it provides a fresh perspective on the proliferating scholarship on Chinese urbanism in the reform era by seriously considering the ways in which ordinary urban inhabitants respond to and negotiate the impacts of rapid social change and the reshuffling of the systems of values and ideologies The urban public therefore is analyzed as an important field in which identities and cultural differences are formed and performed This book is a worthwhile read for anyone interested in theories of urban public space in general or urban transformation of post reform China in particular      Do Muslim Women Need Saving? Lila Abu-Lughod, 2013-11-12 Do Muslim Women Need Saving is an indictment of a mindset that has justified all manner of foreign interference including military invasion in the name of rescuing women from Islam It offers a detailed moving portrait of the actual experiences of ordinary Muslim women and of the contingencies with which they live      Diasporas of the Modern Middle East Anthony Gorman, 2015-05-29 Approaching the Middle East through the lens of Diaspora Studies the 11 detailed case studies in this volume explore the experiences of different diasporic groups in and of the region and look at the changing conceptions and practice of diaspora in the      Performing Piety Karin van Nieuwkerk, 2013-10-01 In the 1980s Egypt witnessed a growing revival of religiosity among large sectors of the population including artists Many pious stars retired from art repented from sinful activities and dedicated themselves to worship preaching and charity Their public conversions were influential in spreading piety to the Egyptian upper class during the 1990s which in turn enabled the development of pious markets for leisure and art thus facilitating the return of artists as veiled actresses or religiously committed performers Revisiting the story she began in A Trade like Any Other Female Singers and Dancers in Egypt Karin van Nieuwkerk draws on extensive fieldwork among performers to offer a unique history of the religious revival in Egypt through the lens of the performing arts She highlights the narratives of celebrities who retired in the 1980s and early 1990s including their spiritual journeys and their influence on the pietization of their fans among whom are the wealthy relatively secular strata of Egyptian society Van Nieuwkerk then turns to the emergence of a polemic public sphere in which secularists and Islamists debated Islam art and gender in the 1990s Finally she analyzes the Islamist project of art with a mission and the development of Islamic aesthetics questioning whether the outcome has been to Islamize popular art or rather to popularize Islam The result is an intimate thirty year history of two spheres that have tremendous importance for Egypt art production and piety

Cinema in the Arab World Ifdal Elsaket, Daniël Biltereyst, Philippe Meers, 2023-01-26 Cinema in the Arab world has been the subject of varied and rigorous studies but most have focused on films as text providing in depth analyses of plot style ideologies or examination of the biographies of prominent directors or actors This innovative new volume shifts the focus on Arab cinema off screen to examine the histories politics and conditions of distribution exhibition and cinema going in the Arab world Through broadening the frame of study beyond the screen the book widens understanding of the cinema not merely as a collection of films as texts but as a site of cultural and political contestation in the Arab world Divided into two sections and guided by interdisciplinary considerations the contributors examine historical and contemporary issues of Arab cinema in terms of the experience of movie going and filmmaking They examine the networks of distribution and exhibition as well as the contested and multiple meanings that the cinema embodied through diverse historical periods and geographical locations Part I focuses on new histories of Arab cinema in terms of film production distribution exhibition and audience s experiences of cinema going Part II deals with more recent issues within scholarship on Arab cinema such as issues of politics economics ideologies as well as issues related to Arab movies international circulation and screenings at festivals Together the chapters enrich our understanding of the cinema in the Arab world showing how deeply embedded it is within its social political and economic contexts
