Mertens,Vincent A. Anfara,Kathleen Roney,2009-02-01 Sponsored by the Middle Level Education Research Special Interest Group and the National Middle School Association Studies like the Third International Mathematics and Science Study TIMSS have compared the performance of U S middle grade students i e eighth graders to those in other countries In relation to middle grade schools 20 countries outperformed the United States in mathematics and nine countries scored above the U S in science The intent of this volume of The Handbook of Research in Middle Level Education An International Look at Educating Young Adolescents is to broaden our understanding of middle grade schooling by critically examining the education of young adolescents ages 10 15 typically grades 6 8 through an international lens In addition to looking at how schooling and students are organized for teaching and learning this handbook will focus on the successes and failures that are evident in a wide variety of nations present the indictments and praises that have been offered by supporters and critics alike and review the research that has been generated about educating young adolescents in an effort to cross national boundaries Ultimately this volume of the handbook series will explore what international perspectives teach us about the effective education of young adolescents   Assessing English for Academic Purposes George M. Blue,James Milton,Jane Saville,2000 A concern for quality and the growing number of international students have made the assessment of English for Academic Purposes a prime concern in British universities By drawing on the expertise of BALEAP and many EAP specialists this collection describes and critically evaluates current issues and debates in the field An introduction provides an overview of the state of assessment in EAP and this is followed by sections which investigate in depth individual issues such as the validity of commonly used tests the utility of computer test batteries and other non traditional forms of assessment Also addressed with original research data are the varying requirements of individual departments students views of assessment and self assessment instruments These issues are relevant beyond the individual circumstances of British universities and should inform good practice not only in the UK but anywhere where students receive part or all of their education in English as a second or foreign language   Post-admission Language Assessment of University Students John Read,2016-08-10 English medium universities around the world face real challenges in ensuring that incoming students have the language and literacy skills they need to cope with the demands of their degree programmes One response has been a variety of institutional initiatives to assess students after admission in order to identify those with significant needs and advise them on how to enhance their academic language ability This volume brings together papers from Australia Canada Hong Kong New Zealand Oman South Africa and the United States written by language

assessment specialists who discuss issues in the design and implementation of these post admission assessments in their own institutions A major theme running through the book is the need to evaluate the validity of such assessments not just on their technical quality but on their impact in terms of giving students access to effective means of developing their language skills and ultimately enhancing their academic achievement   English as a Lingua Franca: Attitude and Identity Jennifer Jenkins,2007-07-26 Based on research conducted among teachers this text examines the role of standard language ideology in ELF attitude formation critiques current SLA theories and ELT practices highlights links between ELF accent attitudes and ELF identities and includes proposals for making ELT pedagogy and testing more relevant   Australian Language & Literacy Matters ,2004   English Language Learning Materials Brian Tomlinson,2008-05-17 This book provides a critical analysis of the materials used for learning English around the world considering both the teachers and the learners requirements   Focus on IELTS Foundation ,2002   IELTS Target 5.0 Chris Gough,2013-11-14 IELTS Target 5 0 Preparation for IELTS General Training Leading to IELTS Academic IELTS Target 5 0 is aimed at students wishing to prepare for the IELTS exam while studying at pre intermediate level The main focus of preparation is IELTS General Training as this is more appropriate for this level of student Additional bridging material is incorporated later in the course for those students wishing to continue with IELTS Academic The IELTS General Training section consists of three five unit sections that take the student from a strong elementary to intermediate level The earlier units focus on basic skills and basic language including sentence structure and spelling The IELTS Academic section consists of five units that prepare students for the academic content of reading passages and the more challenging writing tasks By the end of the course students will be working with text and language that is close to that found in the exam Exam tips are provided throughout the course to familiarize students with the various exam tasks and to provide advice on how to obtain the highest score possible Each General Training unit consists of five modules 1 Speaking and Vocabulary This prepares students for the type of interaction they can expect with the examiner The vocabulary selected is that most frequently encountered during the Speaking test 2 Listening This module is in two sections The first section engages students in a topic and pre teaches key vocabulary before focusing on a key skill or particular IELTS exam technique The second section practises the skill 3 Reading As with the Listening Module 4 Writing This deals with both parts of the Writing test each unit focusing on a different writing skill or technique There is a focus on guided writing with model compositions and reports for all tasks 5 Consolidation and Exam Practice The first part revises the speaking focus and vocabulary in the first module The second part practises listening reading or writing skills under exam type conditions Each Academic unit consists of Reading and Writing Modules only The course also includes end of section review material and mock tests See accompanying Teacher s Book and Interactive Course Book CD ROM Download MP3s IELTS_5CBWB_Track_1_40 zip IELTS_5CBWB_Track_41_80 zip IELTS_5CBWB_Track_81_120 zip IELTS_5CBWB_Track_121_173 zip   Libraries, Civil Society and Social Development Herbert K.
