This book contains papers in the fields of Collaborative learning, Digital transition in education, AI and learning analytics in engineering education, Diversity in engineering education. The authors are currently witnessing a significant transformation in the development of education on all levels and especially in post secondary and higher education. To face these challenges, higher education must find innovative and effective ways to respond in a proper way. Changes have been made in the way we teach and learn, including the massive use of new means of communication such as videoconferencing and other technological tools. Global Contract Law in the Middle East and North Africa Mohamed Ismail, 2024-08-01. This book comprehensively covers the interplay between cultural and legal globalization and the impact this has on contract law, with a particular focus on state contracts within the MENA region. The book discusses the roles assumed by Supreme Courts in Egypt and MENA countries in creating unified principles of international contract law in states' contracts, which are consistent with international commercial contracts principles It makes a powerful argument for further harmonization of contract law in the area and how this can be achieved The book forms a case study of how international harmonization can be achieved through a number of routes such as codification digitalization of processes and contracts private public arbitration and further use of international instruments It also considers the implications of comparative European law convention law and other legal domains particularly international standards on contract law in the MENA region The book suggests how international legal standards can be integrated within contract law and how a harmonious contract law framework can thus be achieved Through analyzing ICSID case law the book argues that unification of contract law principles in the MENA region is a considerable step towards achieving legitimate expectations of foreign investors It argues further that global contract law is underway The book will be of interest to students and scholars in the field of international contract law public law and international law in Egypt and MENA countries
