Moran, 1990-02-15 This reference handbook surveys research on the central issue associated with the teaching of unprepared writers Though basic writing has only been recognized as a distinct area of teaching and research since 1975 the existing bibliographic texts already seem limited due to their age or lack of annotation This volume provides current and extensive bibliographic essays and will help to define this new field of study for teachers and researchers Following an introduction that summarizes the origins and significant texts in basic writing the book is divided into three sections Social Science Perspectives Linguistic Perspectives and Pedagogical Perspectives The first section which contains three essays views the field through the lens of social psychological and political issues The second section also containing three essays examines contributions made from studies of grammar dialects and second language acquisition The third section in its four essays focuses on the design development administration and evaluation of basic writing courses the use of computers in basic writing classrooms the role of the writing lab and the preparation of basic writing teachers An appendix that reviews current textbooks for basic writing courses is also included as well as an index This book will be a valuable resource for teachers of basic writing in education courses and workshops that train teachers and tutors and in fields such as linguistics technical writing and Teaching English as a Second Language It will also be an important addition to public and university libraries and many education programs

ENGLISH WRITING DEVELOPMENT LIXIA WEI,2018-02-13 English Writing Development 4MAT Learning Style and Thinking Visualization Strategies is designed as an introductory course in English writing for students teachers and all those who consider writing is important and fun It is based on the author s own experience of teaching English writing to undergraduates who major in English and training students to participate in provincial and national English writing contests Instead of showing the skeleton of writing to readers directly the author integrates the 4MAT Process Approach that she has developed on the basis of the 4MAT learning style and the Process Approach into the design of the book aiming to increase learners motivation by answering why they should learn what they should learn how they should apply what they have learnt and what if the situation changes in each chapter With corpora news and students work as resources to collect sample sentences paragraphs and essays the author elaborates eight main aspects which are writing process writing a paragraph writing an essay methods of paragraph development types of clause types of sentence rhetorical devices paraphrase and summary English Writing Development 4MAT Learning Style and Thinking Visualization Strategies is not only the ideal English writing textbook for students at different levels but also functions equally well as a self tutoring textbook The simple reader friendly explanations coupled with interesting and meaningful examples figures tables and the checklists are of great help for the learners to make progress on their own Armed with the strategies elaborated in the book learners most probably will find that WRITING IS FUN

Exploring Writing John Langan,2007 English for Academic Research: Writing Exercises Adrian Wallwork,2024-05-23 This book is based on a study of referees reports and letters from journal editors on reasons why papers written by non native researchers are rejected due to problems with English long sentences redundancy poor structure etc The exercises in this new edition are organized into twelve chapters on punctuation and spelling word order writing short sentences and paragraphs link words connecting phrases and sentences together being concise and removing redundancy ambiguity and political correctness paraphrasing and avoiding plagiarism defining comparing evaluating and highlighting anticipating possible objections indicating level of certainty discussing limitations hedging future work using Large Language Models for writing papers emails and presentation scripts Some exercises require no actual writing but simply choosing between various options In those exercises where extended writing is required model answers are given The exercises can also be integrated into English for Academic Purposes EAP and English for Special Purposes ESP courses at universities and research institutes The book can be used in conjunction with the other exercise books in the series and is cross referenced to English for Research Usage Style and Grammar English for Writing Research Papers English for Academic Research Grammar Exercises English for Academic Research Teacher s Guide Adrian Wallwork edits scientific papers and teaches English for Academic Purposes EAP to PhD students In addition to his many books for Springer he has written course books for Oxford University Press and discussion books for Cambridge University Press
