Gestalt Psychology The Definitive Statement Of The Gestalt Theory:

Direction and Socio-spatial Theory Matthew Hannah, 2018-12-07 The embodied directedness of human practice has long been neglected in critical socio spatial theory in favor of analyses focused upon distance and proximity This book illustrates the absence of a sense for direction in much theoretical discourse and lays important groundwork for redressing this lacuna in socio spatial theory Many accounts of the social world are incomplete or are increasingly out of step with recent developments of neoliberal capitalism Not least through new technological mediations of production and consumption the much discussed waning of the importance of physical distance has been matched by the increasing centrality of turning from one thing to another as a basic way in which lives are structured and occupied A sensibility for embodied processes of turning and for phenomena of direction more generally is urgently needed Chapters develop wide ranging and original engagements with the arguments of Sara Ahmed Jonathan Beller Edmund Husserl Martin Heidegger Virginia Held Bernard Stiegler Theodore Schatzki Rahel Jaeggi Hartmut Rosa and David Harvey This book reinterprets practice embodiment alienation reification social reproduction and ethical responsibility from a directional perspective It will be a new valuable resource and reference for political and social geography students as well as sociologists and anthropologists Critical Ethology and Post-Anthropocentric Ethics Roberto Marchesini, Marco Celentano, 2021-05-22 The primary purpose of this book is to contribute to an overcoming of the traditional separation between humanities and life sciences which according to the authors is required today both by the developments of these disciplines and by the social problems they have to face The volume discusses the theoretical epistemological and ethical repercussions of the main acquisitions obtained in the last decades from the behavioral sciences Both the authors are inspired by the concept of a critical ethology oriented to archive the nature culture and human animal dichotomies The book proposes a theoretical and methodological restructuring of the comparative study of the animal behavior learning and cultures focused on the fact that thought culture and language are not exclusively human prerogatives The proposed analysis includes a critique of speciesism and determinism in the ethical field and converge with the Humanities to which the series is dedicated on a key point it is necessary to arrive at an education system able to offer scientific social and ethical skills that are transversal and transcendent to the traditional humanities life sciences bipartition Skills that are indispensable for facing the complex challenges of the contemporary society and promoting a critical reflection of humanity on itself Personality and Brain Disorders Danilo Garcia, Trevor Archer, Richard M. Kostrzewa, 2019-05-21 Brain disorders neurodevelopmental neurodegenerative and affective disorders can be investigated treated and prevented using person centered methods Because researchers have not reached a clear consensus on whether or not personality is stable or changeable it has been difficult to outline how to use these methods in the care of people with brain disorders Thus the first part aims to identify the ways in which brain disorders and personality are linked The second part explores different person centered approaches that can be incorporated in a healthcare or education setting to help people with various brain disorders and to promote physical mental and social health The third part focuses on challenges and new venues
